WRIT PETITION No.18320 of 2005

ORDER:

The petitioner claims to be the owner of agricultural land admeasuring Acs.2.56 in Survey No.150/2 of R.Anantapur Village of Madakasira Mandal in Ananthapur District. She alleges that when one Smt.Rangamma tried to interfere with her possession by manipulating revenue records and obtained mutation in her name, the petitioner filed O.S.No.133 of 1989 for permanent injunction, which was dismissed by the Court of the Junior Civil Judge, Madakasira. Therefore, the petitioner questions the action of the respondent in mutating the name of Smt.Rangamma without notice to the petitioner.

Though the petitioner seeks cancellation of the entries in the revenue records made in favour of Smt.Rangamma, she is not arrayed as respondent to this writ petition. Further, when the matter came up before this Court on 22.9.2005, the learned Counsel for the petitioner was directed to produce a copy of the proceedings under which the name of Smt.Rangamma was mutated. The said proceedings was not produced. Again, when the case was called on 28.9.2005, the learned Counsel for the petitioner was absent. Today also, the proceedings is not produced and no steps are taken to implead Smt.Rangamma as respondent in this writ petition. Therefore, this Court is not inclined to adjudicate the matter. If so advised, the petitioner may approach the Revenue Divisional Officer (RDO) having jurisdiction and file an appeal against the proceedings mutating the name of Smt.Rangamma, in which event, the concerned RDO shall dispose of the said appeal, after giving notice to the petitioner and Smt.Rangamma.

The writ petition, with the above observations, is dismissed. No costs.
